

Liebert Open Access

Does your research funder or institution have an open access policy?

Publishing open access allows researchers to comply easily with open access mandates by making research immediately available upon publication.

Liebert Open Access benefits include:

- High visibility with articles freely available online upon publication
- Easy compliance with funder mandates
- Rapid, rigorous peer review
- Authors retain copyright, with an open access license, ensuring broad dissemination of research
- Custom email marketing featuring direct link to your published article
